

Write the first three sentences of the cover letter for this situation:

1) You are a marketing associate

2) The job posting says they need attention to detail and for you to learn quickly and that you should be able to work independently and remotely.