

Hi Alex,

I am working on promoting my app. I came across your article on app marketing (link) and it helped me boost downloads for my app. Your article is very helpful. I learned a lot. I really appreciate you sharing your extensive expertise.

I am a student at the moment and can't afford your coaching, but I could use extra mentoring. While I can't pay, I'd love to help by doing some work for you for free or promoting your business on my blog, or helping with anything else you might be working on at the moment.

Sincerely,
Alex Genadinik
