

If you had to write a formal, analytical report about statistics of starting a company, write an executive summary for this report.

Here are the facts you can use in your executive summary:

- 1) 74% of new businesses started in the United States fail within 3 years
- 2) Businesses that succeed generate upper class incomes for their founders
- 3) Entrepreneurs who run successful businesses report higher enjoyment from their work