Verb Forms

Let's Go Over Them One By One

- 1) Simple - base form of a verb like “work” or “go”
- 2) Continuous - add “ing” to indicate that this is in the process of happening
- Example: Work and working or go and going
- Perfect - Indicates that an action occurred earlier
- Perfect is formed by using has or have followed by a past participle verb

“Perfect” Type Of Verb Form

- 3) Perfect simple - focus on the result or completion of the activity
- 4) Perfect continuous - focus on the ongoing nature of the activity (ing)
- You have done something vs. You have been doing something
- In the future? “You will have done a task” vs. “You will have been doing it for 10 years”
