

This is kind of nice. I tend to agree with you. I do have one question about the things you mentioned. Even though I can deliver the report soon (in 10 days), I might have have to some research and maybe the deadline might be extended.

Also, after our conversation yesterday, I came to the realization that I would like to sign a long-term contract due to the fact that we are looking for a good long-term partner. The stuff we have accomplished so far has been good and I feel that we can benefit each other long-term.
